CCPCJ 31st Reconvened Session

9th December 2021

As the Covid situation continues, OFAP can only attend the conference online.

The CCPCJ reconvened session starts with the thematic discussion on preventing and countering smuggling of migrants including women and children. It is stated to focus on prevention and protection issue arising from the vulnerabilities faced by people on the move in the context of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Ambassador Takeshi Hikihara, Permanent Representative of Japan is now selected to be the Chair of the 31st CCPCJ session.

Ms. Dorothee Gottwald, the secretariat of CCPCJ introduces the new eLearning Tool, adopted at the 14th Crime Congress in Kyoto (also attended virtually online). It provides an introduction to the work of CND and its relationship to the realization of the SDGs. The course introduces the policy recommendations made by Member States in the respective areas of drug policy supply reduction, rights, trends, international cooperation and alternative developments.
